

OFFENSE FINALISTS

Shatavius Lowe

Germantown junior

The 5-11, 175-pound Lowe was a workhorse for the Red Devils, carrying the ball 197 times in the regular season while gaining 1,336 yards and scoring 18 touchdowns. He turned up his play a notch in the postseason as Germantown overcame a 2-3 start to finish the season 8-5 and advance to the third round of the playoffs.

Danny Potter

Brighton senior

The Cardinals had one of the top offenses in the area and Potter was a big factor, leading the Shelby-Metro area in passing. He completed 61.2 percent of his attempts while throwing for 2,547 yards, with 32 touchdowns for a Brighton squad that finished 9-2.

Jovon Robinson

Wooddale junior

The 6-0, 210-pound Robinson led the Shelby-Metro area in rushing in 2010, picking up 1,667 yards on 196 carries (8.5 average) while scoring 22 touchdowns. Also dangerous as a pass-catching threat and as a return man, Robinson was the heart and soul of a Cardinals team that finished the season 8-4 while averaging 30 points per game.

Jaylen Walton

Ridgeway junior

The Roadrunners improved from four victories in 2009 to 13 this past season and the speedy Walton was a major reason why. He rushed for 1,596 yards, averaging 7.9 per carry, while scoring 14 touchdowns. A breakaway threat on every carry, Walton led Ridgeway to a spot in the state 5A semifinals and a No. 1 state ranking for much of the season.

Terrell Williams

Trezevant senior

Williams, a 5-11, 190-pound running back, was the offensive spark in the Bears' surprising run all the way to the Class 4A state championship game. He gained 1,467 yards on 227 carries while scoring 11 touchdowns as Trezevant finished 13-2, the most successful season in school history.

Henry Dickinson

MUS senior

Dickinson, who is headed to Illinois next season, made his last season at MUS a memorable one. He finished with 102 tackles, 12 tackles for loss and four interceptions as the Owls finished 7-4. For his efforts, Dickinson was named the Division 2-AA Mr. Football lineman of the year.

Douglas McWhorter

Ridgeway senior

McWhorter, a 6-3, 190-pounder, was the ringleader of a Ridgeway defense that posted three regular season shutouts and held three other teams to just a touchdown. The defensive player of the year in District 15-AAA, McWhorter was one of the keys as the Roadrunners allowed just 178.2 yards per game.

Lugman Muhammad

Trezevant junior

Despite a listed size of 5-5 and 160 pounds, Muhammad emerged as a tackling machine for one of the area's best teams. One of the top tacklers in Tennessee, Muhammad had 183 in 15 games, an average of 12 per contest. In the Class 4A title game loss to Greeneville, he had 16 tackles, two short of the BlueCross Bowl's single-game record.

Terry Redden

Whitehaven senior

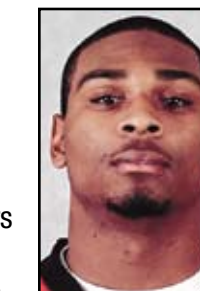

Whitehaven advanced to the state semifinals for the first time since the TSSAA adapted its current playoff format in 1969 and Redden was one of the leaders. The massive defensive tackle anchored the area's top defense; the Tigers allowed just 7.9 points and 118.2 yards per game en route to a 12-2 season.

Deion Roberson

Wooddale senior

A hard-hitting, 225-pound linebacker, Roberson was one of the stars for a Wooddale team that spent virtually the entire season ranked in the Dandy Dozen. In addition, Roberson was honored with the Harris Jones Courage Award prior to the AutoZone Liberty Bowl All-Star Game.
